Friday evening is the Ripon Pub Crawl Quiz for those with the stamina culminating at the Obelisk in the Market Square at 2100 Hours when the Wakeman sets the Watch.

Saturday 20th June

Breakfast at the Ripon Inn. Drive to Harrogate parking in the centre of town 12.5 Miles. Cars on Concours display from 11.30 to 14.30.

A light lunch is included at the Yorkshire Hotel in a private room overlooking the Concours display.

Drive back to Ripon and at 1800 Hrs again drive your Veteran Car to Dinner at the Carpenters Arms Felixkirk (15 Miles) through the Market Square at Thirsk – the Original location of Skeldale House, where James Herriot originally practised (Darrowby in the books). The larger cars will dine at the Black Bull at Moulton - c. 26 miles each way.

Return to Ripon Inn – this is just after the longest day, lighting up time is 21:50 in Yorkshire. (Full breakdown recovery services will be on hand if required.)

We are organising a full weekend of Veteran Car Activity in the heart of North Yorkshire

The Rally is based at the newly refurbished Ripon Inn HG4 2BU – formerly the Ripon Spa Hotel with the addition this year of The Old Deanery Hotel in Ripon and also the luxurious Grantley Hall.

The Event is open for entries now and eligible vehicles will be either any self-propelled vehicle manufactured prior to 1905 or any Steam or Electric vehicle manufacture before 1919 – all as recognised by the Veteran Car Club of GB.

The routes have been selected so that any vehicle capable of completing the London to Brighton VCR will be able to achieve them. The Event is fully supported by back up recovery crews, well acquainted with Veteran Cars and with fully equipped repair trucks and trailers.

Lunch stop at Bainbridge, Sunday
